Note: Question No. 1 is compulsory. Answer any five from the rest

1. There is no provision in the Companies Act, 2013 under which the board meetings must be held at any particular place. The Companies Act lays down the provisions for holding meetings by video conferencing, sending notices, procedures at the meeting etc. (1 mark)

Therefore, there is no difficulty in holding the board meeting at Chennai even if all the directors of the company reside at Kolkata and the registered office is situated at Kolkata provided that the requirements regarding the holding of a valid board meeting and the other provisions relating to the signing of register of contracts, taking roll calls, etc. are complied with. (1 mark)

2. Section 173 (3) of the Companies Act, 2013 provides for the giving of notice of every board meeting of not less than seven days to every director of the company. There is no provision in the Act laying down the contents of the notice. Hence, it may be construed that notice may be interpreted as intimation of the meeting and does not necessarily include the sending of the Agenda of the meeting. (1 mark)

However, considering the importance of Board Meetings and the responsibilities placed on the directors for decisions taken at the meetings, it is inevitable for them to be properly prepared and informed about the items to be discussed at the Board Meetings. As a matter of good secretarial practice, the notice should include full details and particulars of the business to be transacted at the Board Meetings. The articles of association of the company may make it mandatory to do so in almost all cases. (1 mark)

- b. Section 125 of the Companies Act, 2013 deals with the provisions related to the Investor Education and Protection Fund (IEPF). Sections provides that the Central Government shall establish a Fund to be called the Investor Education and Protection Fund. The fund is established solely to protect and safeguard the interests of investors. (1 mark)

Fund shall be utilised for the following purposes —

- i. To refund in respect of unclaimed dividends, matured deposits, matured debentures, the application money due for refund and interest thereon;(1 mark)
- ii. For promotion of investors' education, awareness and protection; (1/2 mark)
- iii. For distribution of any disgorged amount among eligible and identifiable applicants for shares or debentures, shareholders, debenture-holders or depositors who have suffered losses due to wrong actions by any person, in accordance with the orders made by the Court which had ordered disgorgement; (1/2 mark)
- iv. For reimbursement of legal expenses incurred in pursuing class action suits under sections 37 and 245 by members, debenture-holders or depositors as may be sanctioned by the Tribunal; and(1/2 mark)
- v. For any other purpose incidental thereto, in accordance with such rules as prescribed under the Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority (Accounting, Audit, Transfer and Refund) Rules, 2016. (1/2 mark)

- c. Reporting of frauds by auditor and other matters: As per section 139 read with rule 13 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Rules, 2014, if an auditor of a company, in the course of the performance of his duties as auditor, has reason to believe that an offence of fraud, which involves or is expected to involve individually an amount of rupees one crore or above, is being or has been committed against the company by its officers or employees, the auditor shall report the matter to the Central Government. (1 mark)

The auditor shall report the matter to the Central Government as under: - (2 marks)

- (i) the auditor shall report the matter to the Board or the Audit Committee, as the case may be, immediately but not later than two days of his knowledge of the fraud, seeking their reply or observations within forty-five days;
- (ii) on receipt of such reply or observations, the auditor shall forward his report and the reply or observations of the Board or the Audit Committee along with his comments (on such reply or observations of the Board or the Audit Committee) to the Central Government within fifteen days from the date of receipt of such reply or observations;
- (iii) in case the auditor fails to get any reply or observations from the Board or the Audit Committee within the stipulated period of forty-five days, he shall forward his report to the Central Government along with a note containing the details of his report that was earlier forwarded to the Board or the Audit Committee for which he has not received any reply or observations;
- (iv) the report shall be sent to the Secretary, Ministry of Corporate Affairs in a sealed cover by Registered Post with Acknowledgement Due or by Speed Post followed by an e-mail in confirmation of the same;
- (v) the report shall be on the letter-head of the auditor containing postal address, e-mail address and contact telephone number or mobile number and be signed by the auditor with his seal and shall indicate his Membership Number; and
- (vi) The report shall be in the form of a statement as specified in Form ADT-4.

Details of each of the fraud reported to the Audit Committee or the Board during the year shall be disclosed in the Board's Report by the company: - (1 mark)

- (a) Nature of Fraud with description;
- (b) Approximate Amount involved;
- (c) Parties involved, if remedial action not taken; and
- (d) Remedial actions taken.

- d. Enterprise: The term 'enterprise' is defined in section 2(h) of Competition Act, 2002. Accordingly, 'enterprise' means a person or a department of the Government, who or which is engaged in any activity, relating to the production, storage, supply, distribution, acquisition or control of articles or goods, or the provision of services of any kind. But the term does not include any activity of the Government relating to sovereign functions of the Government including all activities carried on by the departments of the Central Government dealing with atomic energy, currency, defence and space. (1 mark)

Certain specific activities of Government departments like dealing with atomic energy, etc. and sovereign functions of the Government (like police, defence, etc.) are excluded from the purview of the said terms. Hence, a Government department engaged in the activity of providing service in the form of supply of water for irrigation to the agriculturists after levying charges can be considered as an 'enterprise' within the meaning of section 2(h) of the Competition Act, 2002. (1 mark)

Consumer: The term 'consumer' is defined in section 2(f) of Competition Act, 2002. Accordingly, 'consumer' means any person who buys any goods for a consideration, which has been paid or promised or partly paid and partly promised, whether such purchase of goods is for resale or for any commercial purpose or for personal use. (1 mark)

Hence, it is not necessary that a person must purchase the goods for personal use in order to be considered as a 'consumer' under Competition Act, 2002. Even a person purchasing goods for resale or for any commercial purpose will also be considered as a 'consumer' within the meaning of Section 2(f) of Competition Act, 2002. (1 mark)

- e. General conditions for public and rights issues under the SEBI(ICDR) Regulation 2009: As per the Regulation 4 of the SEBI(ICDR) Regulation 2009, any issuer offering specified securities through a public issue and rights issue shall satisfy the conditions of this Chapter at the time of filing draft offer document with the Board and at the time of registering or filing the final offer document with the Registrar of Companies or designated stock exchange, as the case may be. (1 mark)

Further the regulation provides that an issuer making a rights issue of specified securities, shall make disclosures as specified in Part G of Schedule VIII, in the offer document and abridged letter of offer, if the issuer or any of its promoters or directors is a wilful defaulter. Here the promoters or promoter group of the issuer, shall not renounce their rights except to the extent of renunciation within the promoter group. (1 mark)

However, no issuer shall make, (1 mark)

- (b) public issue of equity securities, if the issuer or any of its promoters or directors is a wilful defaulter; or
- (c) a public issue of convertible debt instruments if,
 - (i) the issuer or any of its promoters or directors is a wilful defaulter, or
 - (ii) it is in default of payment of interest or repayment of principal amount in respect of debt instruments issued by it to the public, if any, for a period of more than six months.

So, accordingly issuer can proceed to offer the securities through right issue of specified securities.

Yes the answer will differ in the case of public issue of equity securities if the issuer or any of its promoters or directors is a wilful defaulter. Accordingly, the issuer cannot proceed with the public issue. (1 mark)

a.

(i) Class of companies required to appoint Internal Auditor: Section 138 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 prescribes the class of companies required to appoint Internal Auditor. According to it, following class of companies shall be required to appoint an internal auditor or a firm of internal auditors.

1. Every listed company;(1 mark)
2. Every unlisted public company having –(1 ½ marks)
 - (a) Paid up share capital of 50 crore rupees or more during the preceding financial year; or
 - (b) Turnover of 200 crore rupees or more during the preceding financial year; or
 - (c) Outstanding loans or borrowings from banks or public financial institutions exceeding 100 crore rupees or more at any point of time during the preceding financial year; or
 - (d) Outstanding deposits of 25 crore rupees or more at any point of time during the preceding financial year; and
3. Every private company having –(1 ½ marks)
 - (a) Turnover of 200 crore rupees or more during the preceding financial year; or
 - (b) Outstanding loans or borrowings from banks or public financial institutions exceeding 100 crore rupees or more at any point of time during the preceding financial year.

As per the facts given in the question, PQR Limited is an unlisted public company with the paid up share capital of Rs. 80 crores during the preceding financial year with the turnover of Rs. 110 crores. Since PQR Limited fulfills one of the criteria with paid up share capital of more than 50 crore rupees during the preceding financial year, it is mandatory for the PQR Limited to appoint an internal auditor for the financial year 2016-2017. (2 marks)

(ii) As per the section 138(1), an internal auditor shall either be a Chartered Accountant (engaged in practice or not) or a Cost Accountant, or such other professional as may be decided by the Board. Even an employee of the company may also be appointed as an Internal auditor of the company as per the Rule 13 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014. (2 marks)

b. Penalty for wrongful withholding of property: Section 452 of the Companies Act, 2013 provides for Penalty for wrongful withholding of property. According to the section:

a. If any officer or employee of a company -

- i. Wrongfully obtains possession of any property, including cash of the company; or
- ii. having any such property including cash in his possession, wrongfully withholds it or knowingly applies it for the purposes other than those expressed or directed in the articles and authorized by this Act, he shall, on the complaint of the company or of any member or creditor or contributory thereof, be punishable with fine which shall not be less than 1 lakh rupees but which may extend to 5 lakh rupees.

- iii. The Court trying an offence may also order such officer or employee to deliver up or refund, within a time to be fixed by it, any such property or cash wrongfully obtained or wrongfully withheld or knowingly misapplied, the benefits that have been derived from such property or cash or in default, to undergo imprisonment for a term which may extend to 2 years. (3 marks)

Hence as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and not giving any emphasis on the terms of employment, the manager of the company can recover possession of the room and the cash wrongfully obtained and the benefits that have been derived from such property or cash. (1 mark)

- c. As per Section 8 of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 where any amount of foreign exchange is due or has accrued to any person resident in India, such person shall take all reasonable steps to realize and repatriate to India such foreign exchange within such period and in such manner as may be specified by Reserve Bank of India. (1 mark)

But as per section 9(e) of the said Act, this provision shall not apply to foreign exchange acquired from employment, business trade, vocation, service honorarium, gifts, inheritance or any other legitimate means up to such limit as the Reserve Bank of India may specify. (1 mark)

The Reserve Bank of India has specified the following persons with the limits for possession and retention of foreign currency by a person resident in India: (1 mark)

- i) Any person may possess foreign coins without any restriction to the amount.
- ii) Any person resident in India is permitted to retain in aggregate foreign currency not exceeding USD 2,000 or its equivalent in the form of currency notes/bank notes or travelers cheques acquired by him;
- iii) Any person resident in India but not permanently resident therein is permitted to hold the foreign currency without limit, if the foreign currency was acquired when he was resident outside India and was brought into India and declared to the custom authorities.

In the given case as Mr. Rajat earned a sum of USD 3000 as a honorarium when he was in employment in China. But in view of the restrictions under FEMA and the aforesaid regulation he can retain foreign exchange up to USD 2000 only and not more than that. (1 mark)

Question 3

- a. Section 165 of the Companies Act, 2013 provides for the maximum permissible number of directorships that a person can hold. According to this section: (4 marks)
- i) No person, shall hold office as director, including any alternate directorship, in more than 20 companies at the same time. [Section 165(1)]
 - ii) Provided that out of the limit of 20, the maximum number of public companies in which a person can be appointed as a director shall not exceed 10. [Proviso to section 165(1)]
 - iii) Private companies that is either holding or subsidiary company of a public company shall be included in reckoning the limit of public companies in which a person can be appointed as a director.

The MCA vide Notification dated 5th June, 2015, has clarified that section 165(1) of the Companies Act, 2013, shall not apply to section 8 companies.

Based on the above provisions, we can advise Mr. Fortune as following: (4 marks)

1. 6 Public companies. Since the maximum number of public companies in which one can be a director is 10 only.
2. No more private company. Since his total holding has already reached the maximum permissible 20 companies (All inclusive of public and private companies)
3. 2 more companies registered under section 8 of the companies Act, 2013. Since there is no restriction on the number of directorship, a person can hold in the companies registered under section 8 of the Companies Act, 2013.

b. The applicability of the provisions of CSR to the Company is as under:

As per section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013, every company having net worth of rupees five hundred crore or more, or turnover of rupees one thousand crore or more or a net profit of rupees five crore or more during any financial year shall constitute a Corporate Social Responsibility Committee and the Board of every such company shall ensure that the company spends, in every financial year, at least two per cent. of the average net profits of the company made during the three immediately preceding financial years, in pursuance of its CSR Policy, provided that the company shall give preference to the local area and areas around it where it operates, for spending the amount earmarked for Corporate Social Responsibility activities. (1 mark)

It is further provided that if the company fails to spend such amount, the Board shall, in its report made under clause (o) of sub-section (3) of section 134, specify the reasons for not spending the amount. (1/2 mark)

The definition of net profits under Rule 2(f) means the net profit of a company as per its Financial Statement prepared in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Act, but does not include the following namely: (1 mark)

- (a) Any profit arising from any overseas branch or branch of the company, whether operated as a separate company or otherwise; and
- (b) Any dividend received from other companies in India which are covered and complying with the provisions of section 135 of the Act.

As per point no (ii) reported by Mr. Nikunj, states that all the branches located in India have not earned any profit since 2013-14 onward, meaning thereby all the net profits being earned by the Company pertains to the overseas branches. As provided in the definition of net profit, under the CSR Rules, it does not include the net profit earned by the overseas branch(s); therefore, the provisions of CSR for incurring expenses during the Financial Year 2016-17 are not applicable. (1 mark)

In view of the above, it is clear that though the company has spent 1.10 per cent of the average net profits of the Company made during the three preceding immediately financial years, which is not statutorily required for the Company to spend and as such there is no violation of the provisions of the Companies Act. (1/2 mark)

- c. Section 12 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 provides for the obligation of Banking Companies, Financial Institutions and Intermediaries or a person carrying on a designated business or profession. According to sub-section (1), every banking company, financial institution and intermediary or a person carrying on a designated business or profession shall – (2 mark)

- a. maintain a record of all transactions, including information relating to transactions covered under clause (b), in such manner as to enable it to reconstruct individual transactions;
- b. furnish to the Director within such time as may be prescribed, information relating to such transactions, whether attempted or executed, the nature and value of which may be prescribed;
- c. verify the identity of its clients in such manner and subject to such conditions, as may be prescribed;
- d. identify the beneficial owner, if any, of such of its clients, as may be prescribed;
- e. maintain record of documents evidencing identity of its clients and beneficial owners as well as account files and business correspondence relating to its clients.

Every information maintained, furnished or verified, save as otherwise provided under any law for the time being in force shall be kept confidential. (1/2 mark)

The records referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall be maintained for a period of five years from the date of transaction between a client and the reporting entity. (1/2 mark)

The records referred to in clause (e) of sub-section (1) shall be maintained for a period of five years after the business relationship between a client and the reporting entity has ended or the account has been closed, whichever is later. (1/2 mark)

The Central Government may, by notification, exempt any reporting entity or class of reporting entities from any obligation under this chapter. (1/2 mark)

a.

1. Section 218 of the Act deals with the Protection of Employees during Investigation and relevant provisions are as under:

Approval of tribunal to take action against the employee: Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, if –

- a. during the course of any investigation of the affairs and other matters of or relating to a company, other body corporate or person under section 210, section 212, section 213 or section 219 or of the membership and other matters of or relating to a company, or the ownership of shares in or debentures of a company or body corporate, or the affairs and other matters of or relating to a company, other body corporate or person, under section 216; or (1 mark)
- b. during the pendency of any proceeding against any person concerned in the conduct and management of the affairs of a company under Chapter XVI, such company, other body corporate or person proposes –
 - to discharge or suspend any employee; or

- to punish him whether by dismissal, removal, reduction in rank or otherwise; or
 - to change the terms of employment to his disadvantage the company, other body corporate or person, as the case may be shall obtain approval of the Tribunal of the action proposed against the employee and if the Tribunal has any objection to the action proposed, it shall send by post notice thereof in writing to the company, other body corporate or person concerned. (1 mark)
- (2) Action against employee: if the company, other body corporate or person concerned does not receive within thirty days of making of application under sub-section (1), the approval of the Tribunal, then the only then, the company, other body corporate or person concerned may proceed to take against the employee, the action proposed.

In the instant case, the action taken by Damage Ltd. to suspend Mr. Z, the CFO of the company is valid as the company approached the Tribunal on 3rd January, 2017 for the proposed action and on 15th February, 2017 passed an order of suspension without waiting the orders from Tribunal (after 30 days of making the application)

(2 marks)

2. Investigation into affairs of related companies : Section 219 of the Companies Act, 2013, provides for power of Inspector to conduct investigation into the affairs of related companies etc., if an inspector appointed under section 210 or section 212 or section 213 to investigate into the affairs of a company considers it necessary for the purposes of the investigation, to investigate also the affairs of: -

- (a) any other body corporate which is, or has at any relevant time been the company's subsidiary company or holding company, or a subsidiary company of its holding company;
- (b) any other body corporate which is, or has at any relevant time been managed by any person as managing director or as manager, who is, or was, at the relevant time, the managing director or the manager of the company;
- (c) any other body corporate whose Board of Directors comprises nominees of the company or is accustomed to act in accordance with the directions or instructions of the company or any of its directors; or
- (d) any person who is or has at any relevant time been the company's managing director or manager of employee, he shall, subject to the prior approval of the Central Government, investigate into and report on the affairs of the other body corporate or of the managing director or manager, in so far as he considers that the results of his investigation are relevant to the investigation of the affairs of the company for which he is appointed.

Therefore, the inspector shall subject to the prior approval of the Central Government, investigate into and report on the affairs of the other body corporate or of the Managing Director or Manager, in so far as he considers that the results of his investigation are relevant to the investigation of the affairs of the Company for which he is appointed. In view of above, the Inspector is permitted to investigate the holding company.

Question 6

- a. Unpaid Dividend Account: According to the section 124 of the Companies Act, 2013 where a dividend has been declared by a company but has not been paid or claimed within thirty days from the date of the declaration to any shareholder entitled to the payment of the dividend, the company shall, within seven days from the date of expiry of the said period of thirty days, transfer the total amount of dividend which remains unpaid or unclaimed to a special account to be opened by the company in that behalf in any scheduled bank to be called the Unpaid Dividend Account.
(3 marks)

Default in transferring of amount: If any default is made in transferring the total amount as referred above or any part thereof to the Unpaid Dividend Account of the company, it shall pay, from the date of such default, interest on so much of the amount as has not been transferred to the said account, at the rate of twelve per cent per annum and the interest accruing on such amount shall ensure to the benefit of the members of the company in proportion to the amount remaining unpaid to them.

Where the payment of dividend have not been claimed by the shareholders, there the company Adarsh Ltd. shall, within seven days from the date of expiry of the said period of thirty days, transfer the total amount of unpaid/ unclaimed dividend to a special account to be opened by the company in any scheduled bank to be called the Unpaid Dividend Account.

Since the Adarsh Ltd. put the unpaid dividend amount in circulation for the business purpose, it is considered as default made on the part of the company in transferring the total amount to the Unpaid Dividend Account of the company. Here the company shall pay, from the date of such default, interest on so much of the amount as has not been transferred to the said account, at the rate of twelve per cent per annum.

[Note: The Ministry of Corporate Affairs notified Section 124 of the Companies Act, 2013 vide Notification S.O. 2866 (E) dated 5th September, 2016 w.e.f. 7th September, 2016.]

b. Persons not entitled to make application.

The following persons shall not be entitled to make an application to initiate corporate insolvency resolution process – (3 marks)

- a. a corporate debtor undergoing a corporate insolvency resolution process; or
- b. a corporate debtor having completed corporate insolvency resolution process twelve months preceding the date of making of the application; or
- c. a corporate debtor or a financial creditor who has violated any of the terms of resolution plan which was approved twelve months before the date of making of an application under this Chapter; or
- d. a corporate debtor in respect of whom a liquidation order has been made.

In this section, a corporate debtor includes a corporate applicant in respect of such corporate debtor. [Section 11]

As per the facts corporate applicant Mr. X seems to be a separate individual and not a corporate applicant in respect of such corporate debtor who is undergoing a corporate insolvency resolution process. So he shall be entitled to make an application to initiate corporate insolvency resolution process. (1 mark)

c. Heading and Marginal Notes: A number of sections in an Act applicable to any particular object are grouped together, sometimes in the form of chapters, pre-fixed by Heading and/or Titles. Marginal notes means titles to the section. (1 mark)

In Uttam Das Chela Sunder Das v. SGPC AIR 1996 SC 2133, it was observed that 'Marginal notes or captions undoubtedly, part and parcel of legislative exercise and the language employed therein provides the key to the legislative intent. The words employed are not mere surplusage'. Marginal note is legislative and not editorial exercise C Bhagirath v. Delhi Admn. AIR, 1985 SC 1050. It gives an indication as to what was exactly the mischief that was intended to be remembered and throws light on the intention of legislature. It is relevant factor to be taken into consideration in construing the ambit of the section. Shree Sajjan Mills Ltd. (v) CIT (1985) 156 ITR 585(SC). Heading, title and marginal notes can be referred to if the words are ambiguous. If there is any doubt in the interpretation of words in a section, the headings help to resolve the doubt. But they cannot control the plain words of a statute. (2 marks)

To sum up, heading, title and marginal notes can be used to understand the legislative intent, but cannot limit or restrict the clear word used in a section. (1 mark)

Question 7 : Attempt any four of the following:

- a. As per the definition given the SARFAESI Act, 2002, "financial asset" means debt or receivables and includes-
- a. a claim to any debt or receivables or part thereof, whether secured or unsecured; or
 - b. any debt or receivables secured by, mortgage of, or charge on, immovable property; or
 - c. a mortgage, charge, hypothecation or pledge of movable property; or
 - d. any right or interest in the security, whether full or part underlying such debt or receivables; or
 - e. any beneficial interest in property, whether movable or immovable, or in such debt, receivables, whether such interest is existing, future, accruing, conditional or contingent; or
 - f. any beneficial right, title or interest in any tangible asset given on hire or financial lease or conditional sale or under any other contract which secures the obligation to pay any unpaid portion of the purchase price of such asset or an obligation incurred or credit otherwise provided to enable the borrower to acquire such tangible asset; or
 - g. any right, title or interest on any intangible asset or licence or assignment of such intangible asset, which secures the obligation to pay any unpaid portion of the purchase price of such intangible asset or an obligation incurred or credit otherwise extended to enable the borrower to acquire such intangible asset or obtain licence of the intangible asset; or;
 - h. any financial assistance [Section 2(l)]

The use of the word 'future' in clause (v) of section 2(l) means that the term financial asset includes a future debt also. In case of a future debt, what exists today is an agreement to transfer and it will be possible to transfer the future debt when it actually arises, for example sales that will occur in future. In case of conditional receivable, the receivable is transformed into a financial asset after the fulfillment of the relevant conditions.

(3 marks)

In view of above, all are debts as per the SARFAESI Act, 2002 except given under (iv). (1 mark)

b. Relief under Section 463: Under section 463(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 if in any proceeding for negligence, default, breach of duty, misfeasance or breach of trust against an officer of a company, it appears to the court hearing the case he is or may be liable in respect of the negligence, default, breach of duty, misfeasance or breach of trust, but that he has acted honestly and reasonably, and that having regard to all the circumstances of the case, including those connected with his appointment, he ought fairly to be excused, the court may relieve him, either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms, as it may think fit.

Provided that in a criminal proceeding under this sub-section, the court shall have no power to grant relief from any civil liability which may attach to an officer in respect of such negligence, default, breach of duty, misfeasance or breach of trust. (1 mark)

In the given case, the offence is not compoundable i.e. it carries imprisonment as a punishment either alone or with a fine. In either case, it would indicate that a criminal liability is indicated. Hence, the court will not have the power to grant relief under section 463. However, the nature of the offence will have to be examined. (1 mark)

- b. As per provision given under section 380 of the Companies Act, 2013, every foreign company shall be required to deliver requisite documents to Registrar for registration within 30 days of the establishment of its place of business in India. Further section 392 of the Companies Act, 2013 states that if a foreign company fails to deliver documents to the Registrar of Companies as required under section 380 of the Companies Act, 2013, the foreign company shall be punishable with a fine which shall be not less than ` 1,00,000 but which may extend to ` 3,00,000 and in the case of a continuing offence, with an additional fine which may extend to ` 50,000 for every day after the first during which the contravention continues. (2 marks)

Also, every officer of the foreign company who is in default shall be punishable with an imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with a fine which shall not be less than ` 25,000 but which may extend to ` 5,00,000 or with both. (1 mark)

Thus accordingly, Thortten Ltd., the company and the Mr. X the officer in default are liable for considerable fines as state above for the contravention of section 380 of the Act. (1 mark)

7. Section 2(e) of Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 states that 'capital account transactions' means (a) a transaction which alters the assets or liabilities, including contingent liabilities, outside India of person's resident in India (b) a transaction which alters assets or liabilities in India of persons resident outside India and includes transactions referred to in section 6(3). According to the said definition, a transaction which alters the contingent liability will be considered as capital account transaction in the case of person resident in India, but it is not so in the case of person resident outside India.

Purchase of immovable property by Mr. R in India is a capital account transaction. It has also been specifically provided in section 6(3)(i) as a capital account transaction.

Guarantee will be considered as a capital account transaction in the following cases:

- (1) Guarantee in respect of any debt, obligation or other liability incurred by a person resident in India and owed to a person resident outside India.
- (2) Guarantee in respect of any liability, debt or other obligation incurred by a person resident outside India. (2 marks)

In this case, Mr. R, a resident outside India gives a guarantee in respect of a debt incurred by a person resident in India and owed to a person resident in India. Hence, it would appear that guarantee by Mr. R cannot be considered as a capital account transaction within the meaning of Section 2(e), particularly because it is a contingent liability.

All capital account transactions are prohibited unless specifically permitted. RBI is empowered to issue regulations in this regard [Section 6(3)]. Permissible capital account transactions by person's resident outside India are given in Schedule II to the Foreign Exchange Management (Permissible Capital Account Transactions) Regulations, 2000. According to the said regulations both the purchase of immovable property by Mr. R and guarantee by Mr. R are permissible. (2 marks)

- c. ABC Bank of India, being a nationalized bank is a banking company within the meaning of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949. As per the provisions of Section 9, notwithstanding anything contained in Section 6, no banking company shall hold any immovable property, howsoever acquired, for a period exceeding seven years except:
- a. If such property is required for banking company's own use.
 - b. If the Reserve Bank of India extends the said period of seven years by up to another five years on the ground that such extension would be in the interest of the depositors of the banking company. (2 marks)

Accordingly, ABC Bank of India in this case, would normally be required to dispose off the building acquired from Mr. Y before 1st January, 2014. However, if the Reserve Bank of India on above stated ground grants the extension, then also the said Bank will have to dispose off the same before 1st

January, 2019. But in no case, ABC Bank of India can hold it permanently because the building is not for bank's own use . (2 marks)
