Question 9 (4 Marks)

The relevant provisions are discussed as under –

(1) Applicability: Section 10 (1) (b) of the IGST Act, 2017 lays down the provisions to determine the place of supply in cases where there is a tripartite arrangement of supply, commonly known as bill to ship to transactions or where there is a sale of goods in transit by the original buyer / agents. (1 mark)

(2) Place of supply in respect of Bill to ship transactions – Principal place of business of third person: As per Section 10 (1) (b) of the IGST Act, 2017, the place of supply shall be the principal place of business of third person and he shall be deemed to have received the goods if the following conditions are satisfied:

- (i) The goods are delivered by the supplier to recipient or any other person;
- (ii) The goods are thus delivered on the direction of a third person, who may or may not be an agent;
- (iii) The goods are delivered before or during the movement of the goods, either by way of transfer of documents of title to the goods or otherwise.

Even though Section 2(93) of CGST Act defines recipient, inter alia, as the 'payer of the consideration'; under this provision, recipient is the one who actually collects the goods and the third person is the one who enjoys privity with the supplier to be able to direct him to deliver the goods.

Where three parties are involved i.e. to say a supplier, a buyer who is not the recipient of goods (referred as third person) and the recipient who actually receives the goods on the directions of the buyer, a fiction is introduced by Section 10 (1) (b) of IGST Act, 2017, whereby the third person on whose direction the goods are delivered will be considered the recipient of the goods and the place of supply is deemed to be the principal place of business of the said third person (being the first buyer).

It is important to identify the two supplies involved in this transaction – by supplier to third person and by third person to recipient. This provision deals only with the first limb of supply i.e., supply by supplier to third person. (3 marks)
